

There are 4 main study groups determined by USTKIP: Social Development Commission, Economic

Member non-governmental organizations are classified according to their branches and field of activity, and act jointly through related projects they work together. Member NGOs may take place in more than one group in line with their field of activity. The group directors from each group constitute a commission that is responsible for deciding on the development aid projects in their field and other activities within the body of USTKIP

Social Development Commission
Economic Development Commission
Political Development Commission
Women, Family, Youth and Cultural Commission

